

Pristine. Breathtaking. Remote.

An exceptional wilderness mountain experience in the Canadian Rockies adjacent to Banff National Park on the British Columbia/Alberta border.

Helicopter Access Only

This pristine area of the Canadian Rocky Mountains challenges beginner cross country skiers and experienced tourers alike. More adventurous skiers will delight in the variety and intricacies of the terrain. Try snowshoeing, the fastest growing winter sport in North America. Spend pleasant days exploring the plateau or venture further, surrounded by peaks at their winter best. Explore moraines, frozen lakes and tarns right outside your door at Talus Lodge.

Skiing • Snowshoeing • Hiking • Nature Viewing

After an invigorating day, guests will find the lodge a welcome, comfortable and inviting refuge from the elements. Curl up by the fire with a good book or delight in watching the night sky from the deck.

Bring your family and friends and enjoy the winter season at Talus Lodge. Whether you are an outdoor enthusiast, or would just like to escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life, Talus Lodge offers something for everyone. Embrace winter and experience the peace and serenity of Talus Lodge in this unique corner of the Canadian Rocky Mountains.
